

Single Homeless Person's Support Service For People Aged Over 18 Sandwell

Have you experienced homelessness?
Do you require short term accommodation?

Our Homeless Service within Sandwell offers supported housing to people who are single and homeless. We can support you with short term accommodation, where we will provide you with intensive housing management services. This will enable you to live independently and help secure your own tenancy in the local community within a 12 month period.

We can support and empower you to:

- Gain and maintain your accommodation/tenancy
- Help get into work and access training or education
- Manage your finances and benefit entitlements
- Build your confidence and self-esteem
- Access welfare rights, legal advice, advocacy and health & wellbeing services

If you find yourself with nowhere to stay outside office hours or over the weekend please contact
Sandwell's Housing Options Team out of hours 0121 569 6883
(24 hour callback service).
